

I am Amateur licensee WA6FWW, Extra Class. I do not agree with the proposal to allow automated E-Mail forwarding to utilize all phone sub-bands. The reality of operation experienced with these systems demonstrates that they can and do cause harmful interference on a regular basis. I think that automated E-Mail systems should have a dedicated sub-band on each amateur band representing no more than 10% of the bands available spectrum. Respectfully Submitted, James Morton.